

Wisconsin's no-call list is an example of state's rights. The passage of the WI no-call list is based on states right to govern, protect and to act responsibly to its citizens. 80% of WI citizens have signed up for the no-call list. That is a powerful message. Leave our law as it stands. No not interfere.